THE GREAT VIOLIN MAKER. - Whether the violin model came from France or Italy, it is indebted to Italy, and to Italy a'one, for its rise and progress. If it was a French seed, it early floated away from its native and to take root and flourish in Italian soil. There were great lute schools in Brescia as early as 1460, and violins were fabricated in large quantities somewhat later at Venice, Bologna and Mantua. But it was in the workshop of Gasparo di Salo that the first Italian violin was probably made. Like almost all the good violin makers, he lived to an advanced age, and died after tifty good years of work in the town of Brescia The rise of Music in Italy, and the great violin schools, closely followed the rise and perfection of Italian painting. It was at the beginning of the sixteenth century that all the element of the arts which had existed apart from each other began to come together; the study of anatomy and chiaroscuro, from Florence and Padua, richness of color from Venice, reverence for ideal beauty from Umbria. It was toward the end of the seventeenth century that one great maker gathered up in himself the perfections of all his predecessors, and bequeathed to modern ears, intonal splendor, delights analogous to those which the noblest painters have left us in form and color. Like the rapid perfection of Greek sculpture under Pericles, or the sudden blossoming of Italian art under Pope Julius II., so, at the close of one short century, broke into perfect bloom the flower of the Cremonese School. Antonius Straduarius stands crowned the monarch of his art, the Phidias of the Raphael of the violin. He was high and thin, and looked like one worn with much thought and incessant industry. In summer he wore a white cotton nightcap, and in winter a white one made of some woolen material. He was never seen without his apron of white leather, and every day was to him like every other day. His mind was always riveted upon his one pursuit, and he seemed neither to know nor to desire the least change of occupation. His violins sold for four golden livres apiece, and were considered the best in Italy, and, as he never spent anything, except upon the necessaries of life and his own trade, he saved a good deal of money, and the simple-minded Cremonese used to make jokes about his thriftiness, and not, perhaps, without a little touch of Straduarius.' COMPRESSED AIR VS. HORSE FLESH .- An experiment was made in Chicago a few days since which, if successful, will completely do away with horses as a motive power for street railway cars. The Chicago Tribune has the following in reference to the new motor :

prosperous fellow-citizen used to be "as rich as

Ou a side track was an ordinary one-horse car, attached to what seemed to be an ordinary baggage car, differing only from it in that a small platform at each end left a place for the driver, who attends to the simple wants of his engine by moving a lever, to stand. At the I can get the desired shade-the natural color of side of the dummy is a door, which, when opened, discloses the whole of the machinery. There is one tank, constructed of boiler iron, and tested to a pressure of 160 pounds, connected with a small tank, which, in turn, is connected with a couple of cytinders, acting as in a steam engine. The larger tank is filed from an air advertised as Renewers, Restoratives, &c., are pump, and a governor regulates the amount of but compounds of Sugar of Lead and Sulphur, air let into the smaller tank. The amount required for running the machine is only twenty pounds.

Having viewed the dummy, and exulted in it as a Chicago invention, a party of thirty got aboard the one horse car. Mr. Myers superintended the machinery, and away they went on the dummy track, going 21 miles in eight minutes. Then the engine was reversed, and the growth of the hair positively in a few days; party came back, the last mile being accomplished in 3½ minutes.

The company have drawn up a comparative estimate of cost between running a street car line with horses and compressed air, and give the proportion as six to one in favor of the latter.

AN ILLINOISAN GIVES AWAY THIRTY-EIGHT FARMS.—Mike Kitterman is an old, industrious and prosperous farmer, living near Tisk wa. Illinois, and is well known in that part of the State as a heavy land-owner and an extensive sheep-raiser. Mr. Kitterman arrived in Illinois in 1830, from Kentucky, with something less than $10 in his pocket. He was then twenty-six years of age. He wanted to cross the river at Peoria, but as the ferryman asked $4 for the privilege, he journeyed along up the river on horseback. Finally he discovered a log by the side of the river, and getting astride of it, he held the horse's bridle in one hand and paddled himself across with the other. He camped on the paririe, and next day resumed his journey up the river. He journeyed on to the place where he now lives, and determined to make that his future home. He bought over 3,000 acres of laud, and still has 600 acres on the old homestead. He has given away thirty-eight eighty-acre farms to his children and relatives and they are all located near him. As a stock-raiser he has had great success, and it is said he never sold but two loads of corn in market. In the last ten years he had raised 4.000 bushels of corn, and he has bought as much more for feeding purposes He has now on the place over 200 head of cattle, 170 head of hogs and 70 sheep. He says his experience of forty years' farming in Illiinois teaches him that it is far more profitable to feed grain than to sell it, and by following up this rule he has made a large fortune. Mr. Kitterman is now about seventy eight years of age, and is in the enjoyment of good health as well as ample fortung.

A MODERN PYTHAGOREAN.-Bonard, the eccentric Frenchman, who left his fortune to the New York Society for the Prevention of ments to buyers, and solicits a call from his Cruelty to Animals, it was elicited during the testimony in probate proceedings on the 26th inst., was a believer in the doctrines of Pythag oras, and confidently looked forward to the passage of his scul into the body of animal. This certainly puts a new phase upon the matter of the bequest, and would make it appear that the sent their claims. donation is not such a benevolent act after all, but rather a piece of wise forethought and pre- T ADIES LINEN COLLARS caution, in case the eccentric Frenchmen's spirit should come to animate a Fourth avenue ear horse.

Under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. HENRY J. ROGERS, 68 Sharp street, Bultimore, an eminent physician, writes regarding CRYSTAL DISCOVERY:

"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery. Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovering, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder To remove this unsightly appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, my hair being dark brown. I consider your Discovery the best preparation I know of.

Yours truly, HENRY J. ROGERS. Now as the fact becomes more patent every day that the various dirty and filthy preparations and therefore should be shunned by all who value their health, it is scarcely a matter of sur- sep 5 prise that the demand for NATTANS' CRYS TAL DISCOVERY, admitted to be perfectly harmless, and yet accomplish all, and more, than the poisonous articles claim to do, should have increased so rapidly. It restores the color and strengthens the roots, makes an excellent dressing, soiling neither clothes nor scalp; but on the contrary it gives the scalp a pure and cleanly look, removing all dandruff and scurf. It is the most economical preparation in use. Put up in JOHN W. BURKE. large bottles, at one dollar.

Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury! Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trining Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immedi-

DR. JOHNSTON Member of the Royal Collegeof Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most emment Colmad. leges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hespitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astomishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and cars when asleep, great nervousness.

being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashrainess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or mar-

These are some of the sad and melancholy offects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimnessof Sight, Lossof Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsis, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consump tion. &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Con-fusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all agescan now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, paie, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply im-

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplat-

Keflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgranage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the me ancholy reflection that the happiness of anoth. is blighted with our own.

SEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

Where e misguided and ir prudent votary of pleasur inds that he has unblocd the seed of this pair. If disease, it too often happens that an ill-times ense of shame or dread of discovery de-ters him from applying to those who, from education and respectationty, can atome befriend min, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of signt, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awiul disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilled PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consistation, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious e injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
